REPUBLICANS AND BULL MOOSERS CONFER

Shawnee, Okla., June 23.—Probably 350 republicans and progressives from all parts of the county met in the council chamber Saturday afternoon in a "harmony" convention. C. J. Bocher, republican chairman, called for order, and F. S. Roodhouse, progressive chairman, read the call. Roscoe Arrington was made chairman and F. S. Roodhouse secretary. A resolutions committee was appointed as follows: Chairman F. P. Stearns, Shawnee; secretary, W. T. Williams, Shawnee; G. A. Outcalt, Tecumseh; W. S. Baker, Bellmont, and Thos. McColligan, Wanette.

The resolutions reported by the committee recited the "differences of opinion of individuals and whole communities" that arrayed the factions of the party against each other, "resulting in party defeat and disaster" and expressed belief in "the fundamental principles and essential aims and determining purposes of the republican party," resolving to "call upon and ask the republicans of the county and state to subordinate individual opinion of men, means and measures, to the good of united action and party harmony," but "do not call upon nor ask any man to surrender his individual opinion of men, means or measures, to that of another, but only ask that all republicans harmonize their opinions." The resolutions also declare in favor of retaining the name "republican" until some other name may be chosen by a national republican assembly.

World's Road Men Meet in London.
London, June 23.—Leading men from practically every country identified with highway construction and maintenance were assembled in London today at the opening of the International Road Congress. The sessions will continue through the week and will be devoted to the discussion of every phase of road construction, repair and maintenance. The American Road Builders' Association, representing the United States and Canada, has sent a delegation of twenty-five members to the congress. Later in the week the visitors are to be received by the King. Other receptions in their honor will be held by the corporation of the City of London and the British Institution of Civil Engineers.

Indian Money for Oklahoma Banks

Washington, June 23.—Senator Gore Saturday introduced a bill in the senate designed to place $21,000,000 now held by the United States treasury in the banks of the state. The measure provides that all moneys in the custody of Uncle Sam which belongs to the various Indian tribes of Oklahoma, and individual members thereof shall be distributed among national and state banks, such depositories to be designated by the secretary of the interior under such rules governing the rate of interest, the time of deposit, withdrawal, and security as he may prescribe.

Under a special ruling of last year it was agreed to deposit funds from the sale of unallotted lands in the banks of the state to aid in relieving conditions. Oklahoma's share in the $100,000,000 to be distributed by the treasury under the recent special ruling of Secretary McAdoo, will be of much benefit to the state's banks, but if the Gore measure becomes a law Oklahoma will be in better financial condition than in the past several years.

The rates of interest which the various tribe funds are drawing vary from 2 to 5 per cent and it is estimated that the interest alone on the money which may be deposited in the state will reach over $500,000 a year.

It is not expected that trouble will be encountered in getting permission from the government to make large deposits in state banks, inasmuch as last year the departments agreed to this course when first aid was given after the supreme court tax decision. With the deposit of $21,000,000 in the state's financial institutions, it is expected that interest rates will show a rapid decline, and better conditions generally will prevail.

With Secretary Lane thoroughly cognizant of the conditions which Oklahoma has to face because of adverse tax decisions and dilatory tactics in handling of Indians affairs under republican administrations, it is expected he will support the Gore measure, and will influence Secretary McAdoo to the same end.

GRASSHOPPERS DOING DAMAGE IN LINCOLN CO.

Guthrie, Ok., June 23.—A. C. Hixon of Guthrie, general agent for the Ft. Smith and Western Railway, will head a delegation of Lincoln County farmers to Oklahoma City tomorrow to petition President Tom Bryan of the State Board of Agriculture to aid them in stopping the disastrous grasshopper invasion in the Deep Fork Valley in the vicinity of Warwick and Wellston.

Mr. Hixon attended a conference of the farmers in the stricken district yesterday. He says the cotton crop there has been destroyed entirely and the grasshoppers are now working on corn and alfalfa. Unless something is done, the hoppers will cover the surrounding country as soon as the valley is cleared. Farmers are spreading poisoned bran over the corn and cotton fields and are hauling over their alfalfa fields a long corrugated tank, partially filled with crude oil. All hoppers that jump into the oil die from the effects. One farmer within the past four days had taken eight bushels of hoppers off his alfalfa field and an increased army had again taken the field yesterday.

Mr. Hixon saw one farmer harvest five pecks of hoppers off a small portion of an alfalfa field. The boys, girls and women are herding all the turkeys and chickens that can be found in the gardens and fields, thus destroying many of the grasshoppers. According to Mr. Hixon, the grasshoppers have been breeding in the weeds and vegetation of that district for three or four years past and now there are millions of them.

E. S. Kerr was in from Roff today. In view of the fact that that section has had an abundance of rain, he seemed to be in the highest of spirits.

Blooded Yearlings at Auction.

New York, June 23.—The most notable auction sale of thoroughbred horses that has been held around here in a long time was opened in the sales paddocks at Sheepshead Bay today and will be continued through the greater part of the week. The consignments to go under the hammer included forty-three yearlings from the breeding farm of H. T. Oxnard. The prominence of the horses to be disposed of led to marked interest in the occasion and many prominent horsemen and breeders were on hand at the opening of the sale.

SENATE PASSES INDIAN

APPROPRIATION BILL

Washington, June 23.—The belated Indian appropriation of the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1913, was passed today by the senate. It carried an appropriation of $11,000,000.

The senate committee amendment providing that no contract made with an Indian relating to tribal funds should be valid unless approved by the United States, was amended so as to empower the secretary of the interior to give the government's approval.

Senator Williams made a fight to allow the Mississippi Choctaws to prove their rights to enrollment as members of the Choctaw nation. He was defeated but the committee amendment authorizing a per capita payment out of tribal funds to the Choctaws, Chickasaws and Cherokees was stricken from the bill.

The measure now goes back to the house for action on the amendment.

Tennessee Regulars Put One Over.

Nashville, Tenn., June 23.—In the Tennessee house of representatives Saturday a number of extra sergeants-at-arms were appointed, the entrances guarded and the bill amending the election law suddenly called up and passed over the governors veto, 54 to 18. The effort to pass this bill over the veto was undertaken by the regular democrats during the absence of a quorum in the house. The amendment in that shape is now pending before the supreme court.

The election law amendment transfers the control of the state election machinery from the fusionists to the regular democrats and to prevent its passage over the governor's veto was one of the main causes of a recent fusion filibuster to Middlesboro, Ky.

The amendment was called up today just after the house had passed the bill providing for short term loans to care for the state debt.

The fusionists were prevented from breaking a quorum by the extra sergeants-at-arms at the barred doors.

Both houses of the legislature today passed bills providing for short term notes to care for the $11,000,000 state debt due this year and amending the refunding act.

THE OKLAHOMA POOR L.O.

Mr. Rodman Wanamaker, a young man with good intent and lots of money has been "slumming" for the past week among the Five Civilized Tribes and has been putting forth a well meaning effort to introduce the primitive Indian to the modern things. He has been chasing a private car around this state to the capitals of the old Indian nations putting on some graphophone vaudeville in order to show the poor to what has been going on in the world since J. Fenimore let them alone. Mr. Wanamaker's expedition might have been appropriate about the time his father was Post Master General when Mr. Lo was inclined to feathers and fire water but the Noble Red Man can probably report as much progress as young men of Mr. Wanamaker's kind. In fact if Mr. Wanamaker had investigated matters he would have found that the Five Civilized Tribes had in Washington the chairman of the Committee on Banking and Currency in the senate of the United States and one of the ten major members of the greatest legislative bodies on the face of the earth. He might have also discovered the fact that one of the most prominent members of the lower house is a Choctaw Indian by blood. Another fact that might have been discovered by this young man is that two other members of the House of Representatives, Mr. Murray and Mr. Davenport, are respectively Chickasaws and Cherokees by marriage. A slight glance at available information would have netted Mr. Wanamaker the information that the governor and the Lieutenant Governor of Oklahoma are each members of the Five Civilized Tribes by marriage that the Secretary of State is an Indian by blood and that there are perhaps a dozen members of the Five Civilized Tribes in Oklahoma legislature and that the supposedly savage chieftain of the mighty Choctaws, Victor M. Locke, can speak French and German in addition to excellent English.

It is all a mistaken conception that the east has of the Oklahoma Indian, especially that portion known as the Five Civilized Tribes. Instead of painting his face as in days of yore the only tint attempted by any Oklahoma Indian is, as is true of the white man, an effort to paint his nose. Instead of going through the gyrations of the ferocious war dance along trails in the hills the red man is puffing gasoline smoke in the faces of slower travelers along the public highways. Instead of drawing and quartering victims as in the old days the Indian is drawing and quitting bob tailed flushes the same as his white brother. Instead of living in a teepee Mr. Indian is as much at home in a cabaret as his pale faced brethren and perhaps in the general run of things would not serve grape juice at his table if he were entertaining even the committee on Geological Survey from an inconsequential legislature as the state of Arkansas. —Walter Ferguson in Cherokee Republican.

CLEVELAND AND WILSON.

Twenty years ago Mr. Cleveland, upon returning to power, put the money question ahead of the tariff question. He was urged to reverse the order, but declined. Things financial were in a threatening condition, and financiers, especially in New York, thought the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman silver act would restore confidence and save the day. Mr. Cleveland adopted their view, called an extra session of Congress for August, and the fight began.

Instantly the combination which had given Mr. Cleveland his second victory was disrupted, and the democratic party proper, the principal factor of the combination split wide open. The silver Democrats, feeling themselves outraged and betrayed by the president's course and message, revolted in anger, and charged that Wall Street was dictating the national policy. Senator Vance of North Carolina, a vigorous and plain-spoken democratic leader of the day, closed a speech to a packed chamber with the Biblical warning: "The money-changers are in the temple. To your tents, O Israel!"

Mr. Cleveland, with the assistance of John Sherman, the master financial authority of the time, won the fight, though only after a bitter and protracted struggle. Federal patronage flowed like water. A witty democratic senator in opposition to the president reached out his hand as a page was passing with the "flimsy" containing the appointments of the day, and said, "Let me see the list of today's bribes."

But Mr. Cleveland had the business sentiment of the country, democratic and republican, behind him, and, so supported, could not be defeated. But the legislation he thus secured, excellent in itself did not suffice for the emergency. Confidence was not restored, and the country sweated under depression and adversity during the whole of his four years.

Mr. Wilson has put the tariff first, and wisely. That issue properly takes precedence of the currency. So far, too, he has imposed his own tariff views on his party in congress, and present prospects are of a revision in the main as he desires. Today, so far as the tariff is concerned, he is master of the Democratic situation.

But there is a hitch over currency reform. The democracy is divided on that issue, and now, as 20 years ago, there is a charge that Wall street seeks to dominate. Mr. Henry of Texas is in a role somewhat similar to that of Mr. Vance of North Carolina, though he does not charge that the money-changers are in the temple. His accusation is that they are seeking entrance, and he calls on Israel to be alert and keep them out. We may be on the eve of a row which will throw the tariff controversy completely into the shade.—Washington Star.

ADA FARED WELL IN SUNDAY'S OKLAHOMAN

The Ada date line in Sunday's Oklahoman was very prominent. Three stories of Indian history from Prof. E. A. MacMillan occupied the greater part of the state page, and two good stories of the normal from the pen of Prof. W. D. Little added further interest. Good for the Oklahoman. It evidently intends to give Ada a square deal.

MAIL ORDER

TRUST ORGANIZING

(By Clyde H. Tavenner.)

Washington, June 23.—So silently and insidiously that the great public is as yet almost unaware of its presence, a new trust is extending its tentacles over the country. It is the mail order trust. Already its strangling grip is tightening about the million small town and country merchants who are the backbone of national prosperity.

The mail order trust has capitalized women and child labor. It has capitalized prison labor. It has capitalized misfortune. It has capitalized vice. It has turned all these things into dollars—dollars which should have found their way into the tills of the country merchant, instead of flowing into the trust's Wall street board.

One mail order house recently increased its capital stock from $500,000 to $40,000,000. A new $100,000,000 merger of mail order houses has been formed. Wall Street financiers, including the Morgan banking firm, has had charge of both these financial operations. Still another mail order house, with 63 acres of floor space, made a net profit of $17,000,000 last year.

It is evident that the greedy eyes of the great mail order financiers are turned upon the entire retail business of the United States outside of the great cities. It is also plain that a gigantic trust is rapidly forming. The small retail merchant is facing ruin. That the grip of the octopus is already being felt is shown by the population statistics. Nearly 7,000 small towns lost population in the census of 1910.

It is declared that something must be done by immediate legislation, or the parcel post will not be the complete blessing it ought to be. It is asserted the solution of the problem will be in the form of a heavy tax on mail order business. This tax would, it is contended, tend to stop the expansion of the mail business, and to reduce its present formidable size. The money thus collected would be spent for road building or other local improvements in the districts which contributed to the mail order houses.

The small retail merchant is the prop of distributed prosperity, and the growth of the mail order trust serves no common good. Here is a principle which works out: "If you spend your money where you get it, you will be able to get it where you spend it." Through a systematic advertising campaign, the mail order capitalists have sought to poison the public mind against the small merchant. The people have been told that there are too many merchants, and that their retail methods are wasteful and costly. But I would point out the other side of the question.

The Chicago vice investigation showed that 50,000 women employees of mail order houses are existing on starvation wages, many of them being driven by poverty to lives of shame. The mail order houses are the great distributors of prison-made goods. The rare the exploiters of misfortune, buying much of their goods at bankrupts' sales.

We want cheapness, a lower cost of living; that is what we are all working for. But we do not want it at the expense of the women wage slaves of Chicago and of the million little merchants of this country.

CHAUTAUQUA DRAWS

GOOD CROWDS

The chautauqua has proved quite a success thus far and Sunday afternoon W. C. Duncan proposed that the citizens of Ada take immediate steps to make it a permanent thing, a suggestion that will likely be carried into execution. The local managers appear to be very courteous and obliging to everyone and have made a most favorable impression. They have made a special effort to entertain the little folks as well as the big ones.

This evening Rich and the Killarney ladies will give a splendid Irish program. Tuesday afternoon the program will consist of a concert by the Victor serenaders and a lecture by Congressman J. B. Aswell of Louisiana. In the evening the Victor serenaders will give another concert and the Caveny's will appear in a novelty program.

Diver Seized by Octopus.

A naval diver at Toulon was suddenly attacked by a giant octopus while under water in the harbor. He gave the hoisting signal and was hauled to the surface, together with the octopus, whose tentacles, said to be 25 feet long, were wrapped around him. The diver was unconscious. The octopus held fast to the diver until it was stabbed to death. It weighed 135 pounds, and the suckers on its tentacles were as big as half-dollar pieces. —London Mail.

APPELATE COURT REVERSES

JOHN ALLEN CASE

The criminal court of appeals has reversed the district court in the case of John Allen, of Ahlosio, who was given a sentence of five years on charge of assaulting his daughter. The court rules that since the girl's testimony was not sufficiently corroborated, the evidence was insufficient to justify a conviction.

Boy Owes Life to Dog.

A number of young boys were playing on the banks of the Bolton and Bury canal at Pendleton, near Manchester, England, the other afternoon when one of them slipped into the canal, which is nine or ten feet deep. A retriever dog playing near by at once jumped into the water and brought the boy to a place of safety.

A Creation.

When a woman puts powder on her face it is assumed she is endeavoring to improve her complexion and to fool the men folks in regard to it. But when she is married and her husband has to buy the powder, it is not impertinent, we think, to ask who the heck is she trying to deceive now?—Concordia Kansan.

Most Prized of Gems.

The sapphires of Ceylon are among the most beautiful gems in the world. They range from soft, velvety blue to peacock blue, graduating to almost faultless white. Sapphires are also found in greens and yellows, the former shade being known as the Oriental emerald, and the latter as the Oriental topaz. There is also a red sapphire, or Ceylon ruby, which is as valuable as the finest Burmese rubies.

Spoiling Children.

Little children give their mother the headache; but if she lets them have their own way, when they grow up to be great children they will give her the headache. Fondness spoils many, and letting little faults alone spoils more. Gardens that are never weeded will grow very little worth gathering. All watering and no hoeing will make a very bad crop. A child may have too much of its mother's love and in the long run it may turn out that it had too little.—C. H. Spurgeon.

Some Proof.

"So he took you out auto riding the other evening?" "Yes, what of it?" "Do you think he is in love with you?" "I think so. I know that every time I spoke to him the auto tried to climb a tree or jump a fence."—Houston Post.

Siberian Land Threatened.

Extensive tracts of land in Siberia are threatened by the encroachment of the great Gobi desert, and a plan has now been drawn up for a series of forest ramparts to hold back the salt and drift. The only effective defense, according to the report of agronomists sent to survey the region is in tree belts at least two miles broad. It is proposed to plant one of these from Samara to the Caspian sea, while others are recommended extending in intervals of about 40 miles right up to the Chinese frontier.

Be Modest.

Never seem to affect the character in which you wish to shine. Modesty is the only sure bait when you angle for praise. By modesty I do not mean timidity and awkward bashfulness. On the contrary, be inwardly firm and steady, know your own value, but take care to let nobody discover that you know it. Whatever real merit you have, other people will discover and people always magnify their own discoveries, as they lessen those of others.—Lord Chesterfield.

Food for Thought Here.

A southerner, who has his own way of stating things, inquires whether the world is fair "in dealing with God's services." "We will criticize a long sermon," he says, "a lengthy prayer, or any lengthy religious services, but sit quietly through a two-hour political speech, a funny lecture or even a monkey show."

A Good Salesman.

"Well, Jingle," said the manager, "did you make the sale?" "Yes," said the salesman. "I couldn't get the darned old machine to run over half speed, but I arranged with one of the town constables to arrest us for exceeding the speed limit, and old Skeezicks fell for it right away."

Mrs. J. F. M. Harris left Sunday afternoon for Madill to attend her little granddaughter, who is still very ill.

The new boiler for the electric light plant has been received and a force of men is at work putting it into place.

Another will be "A Texas Feud." This one was made on the 11 ranch. The first count of votes in the contest will take place Friday night.

For the benefit of the out of town readers of the paper, the News is pleased to state that a nice shower fell about 3 o'clock this afternoon. Although it was not all that is needed it will help greatly and indications are good for more. The heaviest part of the cloud seemed to be to the westward and northward of Ada.

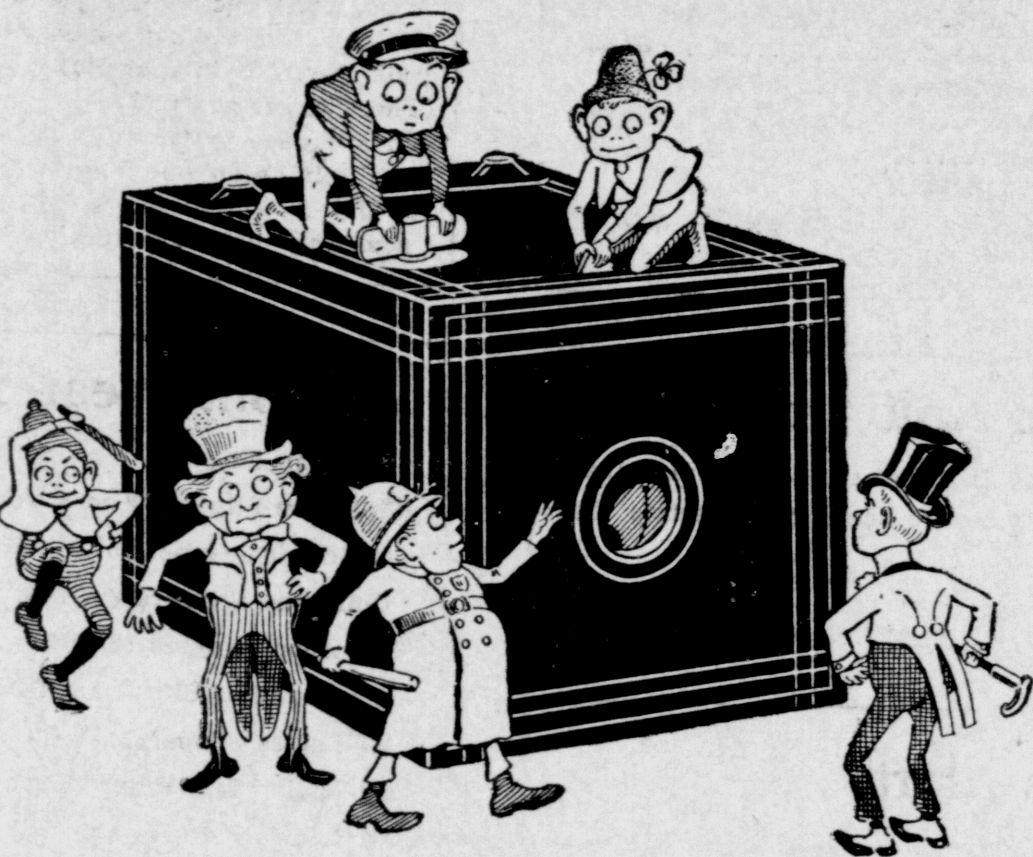

"The Crazy Prospector," is a dramatic gem. It is another tale of the border and is full of excitement and thrills, showing the most remarkable stage coach drive ever seen. Here is where you get all the excitement you are looking for. Besides this an installment of Pathe's great weekly will be presented. Majestic theatre this evening.

Speaking of the drawing power of an item in the News, Rev. M. B. Molloy states that the mention made by the paper a few days ago of the fact that he was selling chautauqua tickets for those who had subscribed for a bunch, has deluged him with calls ever since, although he disposed of the last on hand Saturday. Not many items in any column of the News escape the eyes of its readers.

Once Exclusive Pet of Royalty.

The Pekingese spaniel, or "lion dog," now so popular among dog lovers, was formerly an exclusive possession of China's rulers, and it was a capital offense to remove one of the diminutive creatures from the imperial palace. A pair of them were brought to Europe after the capture of Peking in 1860, and from these and a few others the American specimens of the breed are descended.

Careless Burglar.

An absent-minded burglar, having gained entrance to a Philadelphia residence and gathered all the family jewelry, slipped everything into his pockets. Then, discovering a brand new suit of clothes, he changed his raiment and left the house, forgetting to empty the pockets of his old suit. It is difficult for the careless man to attain a very high degree of efficiency in any line of endeavor.—Boston Globe.

The Universe an Accident.

The universe, together with its parts, is nothing but a number of accidents, ever changing and being renewed at every breath and linked together in a single substance and at each instant disappearing and being replaced by a similar set. In consequence of this rapid succession, the spectator is deceived into the belief that the universe is a permanent existence.—By Nur-Addin 'Abd-Alrahman Jamil.

Woman's Concoctions.

"When a woman prepares refreshments for a party," said a cynical person, "she takes the inside out of something and puts in it the inside of something else." Then she pours a yellow mixture over the result and its success depends upon the difficulty the guests have in telling what it was before she began fooling with it."

To Clean Paper.

To make a paste that will clean wall paper, mix a quart of flour with five cents' worth of ammonia and enough water to make a stiff dough, and knead until smooth. Then wipe the paper with the dough, working it so that a clean surface will be presented with every stroke, and the wall paper will look like new.—New Haven Journal Courier.

CROP SUMMARY WEEK ENDING JUNE 20

(By J. B. Turner)

Memphis, Tenn., June 23.—Favorable progress in cultivation was made in every cotton state during the week. Grass seems no longer an immediate or a serious menace in the Carolinas and Georgia and elsewhere the excellent field and soil conditions which have been a notable characteristic of the season are maintained.

The rainfall in Texas was highly beneficial and was heaviest where most desired. Temperatures were higher everywhere and the plant is gradually coming out of the lethargy induced by unseasonable cold of the early month.

But while every development of the week was favorable, it is evident that a continuation of warm growing weather is needed to restore the plant to complete vigor and to give it normal size for this date. This statement is especially applicable to the Atlantic states where considerable irregularity in reports is noted and where the plant is generally less thrifty and more notably undersized than in the Mississippi valley and the southwest.

Correspondents are generally quite hopeful of the crop and it is certain that the promise in central and western states is very good notwithstanding a small plant. What is most to be desired is warm weather and if moderate rains fall during the coming week east of the Mississippi river and in Arkansas, a great impetus to growth will be given.

Boll weevils appear numerous in certain districts, but without detriment as yet to the crop.

OKLAHOMA—Steady seasonal growth during the week. Soil conditions of very best. Few lice favored by last weeks cold eliminated by heat this week. Outlook very fine.

TEXAS—Splendid week for crop, rain in southern and central portions coming just as needed. Northern parts had all rain wanted. Central and south well supplied but more would not be undesirable. In western counties largest promise and best conditions years. Rapid development expected next week. Weevils beginning to be noted in Cuero and Beeville districts.

Hooray! Baby To Rule the House

No Longer Do Women Fear The Greatest of All Human Blessings.

It is a joy and comfort to know that those much-talked-of pains and other distresses that are said to precede child-bearing may easily be avoided. No woman need fear the slightest discomfort if she will fortify herself with the well-known and time-honored remedy, "Mother's Friend."

This is a most grateful, penetrating, external application that at once softens and makes pliant the abdominal muscles and ligaments. They naturally expand without the slightest strain, and thus not only banish all tendency to nervous, twitching spells, but there is an entire freedom from nausea, discomfort, sleeplessness and dread that so often leave their impress upon the babe.

The occasion is therefore one of unbounded, joyful anticipation, and too much stress can not be laid upon the remarkable influence which a mother's happy, pre-natal disposition has upon the health and fortunes of the generation to come.

Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers, thousands of whom have used and recommend it. You will find it on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle. Write to-day to the Bradfield Regulator Co., 130 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a most instructive book on this greatest of all subjects, motherhood.

Meeting of Cotton Seed Crushers.

Chicago, Ill., June 23.—The annual convention of the Interstate Cotton Seed Crushers' Association met at the Hotel LaSalle in this city today for a three days' session. The attendance is unusually large and includes representative delegations from Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, South Carolina, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas and Kentucky.

To Follow Washington's Route.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 23.—A party of members of the National Society, Sons of the American Revolution, left this city today on a pilgrimage over the route followed by George Washington 138 years ago when he went from Philadelphia to Cambridge, Mass., to assume command of the Continental army. At various points along the route in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut and Massachusetts tablets and other memorials will be erected, marking the stopping places of Washington and other points of historic interest.

Railway Business for April.

The total operating revenues of the railways for April were $237,362,424, an increase over those of April of last year of $22,893,968 in the aggregate, or 9.7 per cent per mile of line. This was whittled down by an advance in operating expenses of 12.3 per cent per mile of line to an increase in net operating revenue of $1,834,073 in the aggregate, or 2.4 per cent per mile of line.

The amount of this net operating revenue was $58,337,434. Taxes for month took $10,482,492, an increase per mile of line of 7.9 per cent; this and shrinkage in revenue from outside operations left operating income amounting to $47,516,273, an increase of $810,427 or less than 1 per cent per mile of line. This aggregate operating income for the 222,156 mile amounts to $214 per mile of line for the month, or $7.13 per mile of line per day.

It is the operating income to which the railroads must look for betterments, improvements, new construction, and for interest on bonds and dividends. Except for the fact that there was an anthracite coal strike in April of last year, this operating income for the railways as a whole would not have averaged an increase and for the railways of the eastern group would have been less this year than last, instead of increasing 14.6 per cent. It was lower per mile of line for these railroads in April, 1912, by 33 per cent than in April, 1911; and 3.8 per cent greater in April, 1911, than in April, 1910. For the railways of the southern group this operating income per mile of line was 16.5 per cent less than in April, 1912; less in April, 1912, by 1.9 per cent than in April, 1911; and less in April, 1911, by 14.5 per cent than in April, 1910. For the railways of the western group this operating income per mile of line was 3.2 per cent less than in April, 1912; greater in April, 1912, by 2.1 per cent than in April, 1911; less in April, 1911, by 12.3 per cent than in April, 1910.

These figures are from the summary of revenues and expenses of the steam railways for the month of April compiled by the Bureau of Railway Economics from their reports to the Interstate Commerce Commission, and cover the returns of about ninety per cent of the steam railway mileage of the country.

C. F. Green made a business trip to Holdenville this morning.

DEWEY BUYS MERRY- GO-ROUND FOR KIDS

Dewey, Okla., June 23.—This town is a "going" concern—going 'round and 'round, all night long. There is nothing too trivial to plunge on here within the shadow of the Sixth Annual Roundup, which will be staged this year, July 3, 4 and 5. But the latest innovation is a municipally-owned Merry-go-round.

Of course the carnival company which will furnish amusement nights during the Roundup carries two expensive riding devices beside a Ferris wheel—but two wasn't enough. A few days ago an Honest-to-Agnes Merry-go-round outfit unloaded, looked up the size of the town and the driver promptly put his foot on the exhilarator and headed for Bartlesville while the mechanical band played.

ed "Why don't you be a Man Like Father."

"Hold, villain!" called a citizen of Dewey's East Side.

"I've got to cut for a bigger burg," said the gruff dealer in hobby horses.

Well, the East side got busy. The council could not for the life of it see how the city could buy the thing and so the East Side bought it outright and presented it to the children of Dewey via the town fathers.

And that is how the strains of "Snookey Ookems" and "Patrick and His Harem" came to Roundup Town and is the true store of how Dewey became the first city in the great Southwest to own and operate her own fun.
